REMARKS: This will confirm our conversation of recent date wherein I advised you, after consultation and discussion with various offices of the District of Columbia Government, the type of project contemplated in the attached memo would not require any licensing.

My presentation was based on a research institute subsidized by interested principals who, through the research institute, would confer grants and fellowships to duly accredited employees.

Approved For Release 2001/10/30 : CIA-RDP57-00384R000700040022-9

much as the arrangement would not create an "employing relationship," no clash with the licensing provisions of the District of Columbia Code was foreseen.

I was also advised by the Recorder of Deeds' office, Mrs. Eleanor Dag Williams, supervisor in charge of corporations, certificates, records, etc., that the mere occupying of an office in the District of Columbia by a foreign (out of State) corporation would not involve compliance with the registration requirements of the District of Columbia Code. This paragraph is in response to your request which was orally communicated to me.
